REVENUE MODEL

REVENUE FROM COLLEGE

We can take money from college each semester in order to gather feedback and give them insightful information about the effectiveness of their professors. The cost would be quite low in the beginning, but as we add new features, the cost can increase.

ATTRACTING A CROWD

FeedBo will draw more users and broaden our user base because it is fully ad-free and targeted toward young audiences.

Collaboration with other Ed-tech platforms

Our BOT not only collects comments but also gives the students other materials (notes and YouTube playlists) to aid in their academic endeavours. Thus, collaborating with other platforms would generate income as well.
